within the fall of 1863, William Clarke Quantrill, the Missouri bushwhacker, took approximately 300 of his men throughout Indian Territory to Sherman, Texas. Within the Lone Star State, the bushwhackers made camp at Mineral Creek. Henry McCulloch, the accomplice commander of the District of Northeast Texas, attempted to discover a use for the pseudo-rebels, Quantrill's Raiders in Texas yet they failed in rounding up deserters, chasing Indians, and destroying moonshiners. They did not be ready to ravage town of Sherman, getting inebriated and taking pictures the tassels off the hat of Grayson County's prime lady, Sophia Butts. In addition they robbed and killed citizens, together with Sophia's husband. Then they started to struggle between themselves till Quantrill's command splintered. Texas appeared little replaced within the guerrillas' wake, however the atrocities they dedicated after returning north convey that their time close to Sherman replaced them decisively.
