The Fountainhead by Ayn Rand

Ayn Rand

This centennial variation of The Fountainhead, celebrating the arguable and enduring legacy of its author, positive factors an afterword through Rand's literary executor, Leonard Peikoff, supplying a few of Ayn Rand's own notes at the improvement of her masterwork, and a Reader's advisor to her writings and philosophy.

SCENE OPENS IN A PSYCHIATRIST'S OFFICE. males FACE one another IN COMFORTABLE-LOOKING ARMCHAIRS. Dr Williams (DrW): Howard, i need you to appreciate that although you have been acquitted for destroying the Courtlandt housing project, the court docket has ordered you to those classes simply because they're involved you will be a hazard to the public. a few of your colleagues imagine you can be insane. Howard Roark (HR): Insane? Pffft- they wish! they only cannot deal with my genius. in the event that they possessed my wisdom of architecture, their faces could soften off like droopy-armed children. DrW: The Fountainhead yet why did you blow up these condo buildings? HR: I simply agreed to layout these residences if Keating promised to construct them precisely the approach I specified. He replaced my design, so (flourish along with his hand)boom. DrW: Generally, whilst anyone is in breach of a contract, one seeks solution in court, now not with high-grade explosives. HR: Look, I gave him a super design. What did he do? He allow Toohey mess with it, making compromises the following and there, cheapening it with undesirable taste, till it used to be a ugly eyesore. The Fountainhead i could not be linked to this sort of factor ...So I blew it up. DrW: Ah, I see... you probably did it to guard your expert reputation. HR: No, no, no... i do not care what others think. (dismissive turn of the hand) I in simple terms care approximately being precise to myself. the entire different architects during this city hate me, and that i say allow 'em! i do know i am great, and that is all that matters. i am on a drug; it really is referred to as "Howard Roark"! DrW: but when it really is more than enough to understand you are great, why do you care that Toohey ruined your work? you recognize your unique layout was once wonderful. If others made a large number of it, isn't really that their problem? (silence, as Howard mulls this) DrW: Look, Howard, i am not taking facets here. you are feeling strongly approximately your art, and that i appreciate that. it really is like Michelangelo. He suffered for his artwork too, yet you did not see him blowing up the Sistine Chapel while issues did not move his way. HR: Well, perhaps he should still have! if you cannot make paintings that's superlative, it is higher to not make any at all. do not you see? All i need to do is create structures which motivate individuals with their shape and function. what is wrong The Fountainhead with that? DrW: Nothing. i love that, Howard, yet you've made it particularly tough for yourself. what number of people may want to lease you, given your imprudent background with munitions? HR: Professor Wright turns out to love The Fountainhead my work. (door opens, and a distinguished-looking educational sort pokes his head in) Professor Wright (FLW): Did I simply listen my identify mentioned? (to Dr W): Is he fastened yet? am i able to take him again to the Academy? DrW: (pleading) Frank, supply the boy a few time! he is bought loads of matters he is operating through. you cannot simply push him. FLW: (angry) FINE! Have it your way! (pointing an accusing finger at DrW): yet there is in simple terms six people on this planet who can also start to understand how mind-blowingly fantastic his Stoddard Temple was. Do The Fountainhead you pay attention me?!?? SIX PEOPLE!!!!(slams door loudly)DrW: i am sorry The Fountainhead you needed to see that. now we have a annoying and complex relationship. We was once university roommates, after which he got, like, the Nobel Prize or something.HR: Um, okay.DrW: Howard, this can The Fountainhead be type of unconventional, yet i believe i do know what a part of the matter is. along with your permission, i might prefer to invite your female friend into our discussion...(goes to the door, and calls Dominique Francon [DF] from the ready area)(Dominique enters)DF: (seductively, to Howard) Hey, Lover... healthcare professional guy the following isn't really messin' along with your head, is he?DrW: Well, Ms. Francon, we have been simply exploring the query of why an complete architect may The Fountainhead unexpectedly demolish a constitution he'd been engaged on for 6 months.DF: Why!? ...Because they do not should reside in a single of his superb apartments, that is why!DrW: "They" who?DF: You know, the "little people"... (with disgust) the insignificant and The Fountainhead inconsequential little nobodies who make up the majority of society! they do not need to shine Howie's sneakers here, not to mention dwell in his attractive building.HR: They could not take it. "Winning."DrW: Howard the following simply instructed me the development sucked. probably it should were ideal for "little nobodies", as you name them. DF: Well...I...um...DrW: and the way have you learnt what kind of humans might have lived there? possibly nice humans you lookup to could have moved in.DF: NO! no longer after Toohey ruined it! It The Fountainhead grew to become an abomination- it was once a monument to mediocrity, an entice the bottom universal denominator...the hive mentality, with their collectivist ideals. that is not The Fountainhead Howard. (walking in the back of Howard, she starts off to run her hands sensually via Howard's hair. Howard appears to be like slightly uncomfortable) My Howie is a smart man! (playfully, to Howard): will not be ya?(serious, to DrW):That's why individuals are paying most sensible buck for his paintings now. are you aware how a lot they're paying him to do the Wynand Building?(smiling to herself, she messes up his hair after which says, extra to herself than anyone else):My little frickin' rock famous person from The Fountainhead Mars!DrW: Er- yeah. Well, so that you locate it very major that Wynand is paying Howard good for his most recent building?DF: Hell, yeah! The loose marketplace does not lie! cash talks, bullshit walks!DrW: Then why dynamite the Courtlandt buildings? would it were extra of a vindication so they can be constructed, after which watch them move bankrupt? That turns out extra in step with your philosophy. Blowing issues up simply turns out desperate.DF: Hey! you are twisting my words! you are simply attempting to break up Howie and me up! it is not gonna work! we are the Bonnie and Clyde of architecture! (turns to Howard)Come on, Howie! Let's get outta here.HR: (slowly shaking his head "no") Bonnie and Clyde? that is not a great comparison. i do not are looking to be a gangster; I simply are looking to construct buildings.DF: Screw you, Howard! i am leaving!(slams door)DrW: Sorry, i did not imagine she'd get a divorce with you.HR: it really is okay. i really imagine she's been dishonest on me with John Galt.DrW: who's John Galt?HR: a few guy... it does not matter. (looking dejected)I wager I acted type of irrationally. it really is just, (voice cracking) it is a very aggressive field...(sniff)There's loads of pressure, you know?(sniff)DrW: (softly) Hey, Howard, it really is okay... it isn't your fault.HR: I know. (sniff)(pause)DrW: No, Howard.It's no longer your fault.HR: (pause) Yeah, i am getting it. (sniff) I know. (wipes eye)DrW: (solemn) it is not your fault.HR: (tearing up) do not mess with me, Man! now not you!DrW: (more gentle) it is not your fault.HR: (starts crying)DrW: (embraces Howard)(long, cathartic sobbing progressively comes lower than control)HR: How embarrassing. (sniff) i have to look beautiful crazy. (sniff)DrW: No, Howard, you are not crazy.HR: (wipes away a tear) The Fountainhead So i am not bipolar?DrW: (smiles and places his hand on Howard's shoulder) Howard, you are bi-WINNING.
